Argentina Hunts Dominican U.S. Foe

MENDOZA, Argentina, Aug. 14 (UPI) — Mendoza police were ordered on alert today for Col. Francisco Caamano Deno, leader of rebel troops opposing the United States intervention in the Dominican Republic in 1965. He mysteriously vanished in 1961.

Posters with Caamano's photograph and detailed description were sent to all police stations in Mendoza, 600 miles west of Buenos Aires, and in surrounding proivncial areas. Police gave no explanation for the alert.